ST MARY Messenger

Vol 16, issue 5 • St. Mary Parish • 2300 E. Meadowlark • Derby, KS 67037

You're on "can&did" camera...

Let your light shine before men that they may see the good that you do and give glory to God! Here are some folks we caught being good stewards:

Fred Debes and other Knights of Columbus gave out Tootsie Rolls and accepted donations from generous kids and adults for the intellectually challenged.

Middle School Faith Formation students are shown making a thank you card for the mom who sent treats for their class recently.

Thanksgiving and love

by Father Wayne

This Sunday we celebrate Thanksgiving.

Now you might be thinking, "Father's really gone over the edge. Everyone knows Thanksgiving is the last Thursday in November," but the reason I say that is that Eucharist literally means thanksgiving, so every time we celebrate Mass we are thanks-giving.

Thanksgiving and love are two of the most important ways that we demonstrate that we are Christian, and both traits enrich our own lives and enrich others' lives.

Now you might be thinking, "That sounds all flowery, talking about thanksgiving and love, but give me some concrete examples of what you're talking about and what I should be doing, Father!"

Just for you, page 3 has a concrete checklist for stewards. The bulletin and other Messenger articles offer additional concrete and specific examples of ways that we as a parish and as individuals can give thanks and love, as well.

I hope you experience that here in our parish—that you receive love and welcome, and that you're able to give love and thanks here and in the world outside our parish walls, due at least in part to what happens here.

As our Prayer for Guidance and the video and testimonials at the

All 300+ students at St. Mary Parish School walked to raise money for the Katharine Drexel Fund. They raised $2,600 to help financially challenged schools, and many gave out of their own pockets.

They will know we are Christians by our love

True discipleship of Jesus is not about our rhetoric or politics or even our theological knowledge base. One can recite every verse in the Bible, but without love, one is a "resounding gong or a clashing cymbal," as St. Paul writes in 1 Cor 13.

Stewardship luncheon conveyed, we are about much more than just brick and stone.

It is my fervent hope that something in the Gospel or something in a homily or in this Messenger gets you to thinking about your life and how you want to live. I hope that you feel called to live a Stewardship way of life . . . Not because I'm money-hungry (some people mistakenly think that Stewardship is all about money), but because it can truly make a difference in your own life and in others'!

To talk about Stewardship or about opportunities in the parish to give thanksgiving and love, give Vicky Tully or me a call at 788-5525. It might change your life.

Made new in faith: Congratulations and welcome to our newly baptized parishioners!

Claire Phillips, daughter of Jason and Lyndsey, granddaughter of Gina and Larry Stephens and Shane Phillips, was baptized on October 9.

Alexis Anne Ealey, daughter of Brent and Lindsay, granddaughter of Dave and Sherri Clark, was baptized Oct. 10.

Ella LouAnn Wondra, daughter of Kirsten and Curtis Wondra, granddaughter of Jodie Leeser, was baptized on September 25.

Charlotte Renae Kippenberger, daughter of Josh and Kyla, sister of Josh, Reagan and Roman, was baptized on September 25.

Olivia Melina Bastarache, daughter of Charles and Candice, sister of Jocelyn and Sasha, was baptized on September 12.

Zoe Cate Torres, daughter of Gustavo and Amy, sister of Zachary and Gus (not pictured), granddaughter of Mark and Darlene Clawson, was baptized on Sept. 5.

Hudson Maddox Cornejo, son of Rocky and Juliana, brother of Kylin, grandson of Jerry and Janet Fager and Richard and Karol Cornejo, was baptized on September 25.

Anna Claire Perren, daughter of Theresa and Chris; granddaughter of Steve and Debbie, and Dave and Sherri Clark, was baptized October 10.

Katherine Anne Mendoza and Layla Mae Mendoza, twin daughters of Andrea and Eloy, were baptized on September 26.

RCIA journey

Hannah Nguyen, Sam Oglesby and other candidates and catechumens interested in continuing their faith journey as Catholics have been meeting for RCIA since August. They will participate in the Rite of Entrance next Sunday, Nov 21, during the 9 am Mass.

Marie Wolke, Barb Pinaire and others prayed the rosary at the grotto north of the old church during Praying the Rosary for America on Oct 16.

Stewardship Checklist

As I evaluate myself as a steward of St. Mary Parish, I can attest that I have done at least the following:

Yes	No
___	___	1. I attended the Stewardship Renewal Luncheon this fall.
___	___	2. I filled out a Stewardship Renewal Form, turned it in and honor commitments made.
___	___	3. Both parents attended the Prayer Service in the past year and signed the Parish-Family Agreement.
___	___	4. Have attended or will attend one of the Spirituality of Stewardship workshops offered by the parish.
___	___	5. We give 8-10% of our income to the parish or are working toward the 8-10% as encouraged by our diocese.
___	___	6. We consistently utilize Scrip for gas and groceries.
___	___	7. Students are cooperative and respectful at school, giving their best academic effort.
___	___	8. We attend Mass every Sunday and Holy Days of Obligation (unless illness or employment prevents it).
___	___	9. We give time to the parish in the following ways:
___	___	10. We are current on all fees for the parish school, Catholic high school or any other faith formation program.
___	___	11. We set aside time to pray each day.

Use the remaining space to explain any answers or explain anything that would demonstrate your efforts toward living the stewardship way of life.

Evaluating our own Stewardship

by Father Wayne

I think the form above is invaluable for EVERY St. Mary parishioner, although it was originally developed this fall for Catholic school families.

You might consider it an “examination of conscience” in terms of stewardship. It can help you determine the answer to this fundamental question: Am I doing all I can to help ensure that people in this community, including my own family, can grow in their knowledge and understanding of God’s love?

The opportunities our parish provides for people of all ages to grow in our Catholic faith is dependent upon each parishioner’s contribution. This is never more evident than in rough economic times. People need the emotional, spiritual and sometimes economic support we provide as a parish now more than ever.

Some of the checklist items may not apply to you (such as the prayer service or student effort), but consider how each might apply to you, and how your faithful practice of these simple actions could strengthen our parish, lift others up, and enrich your own life along the way, too.

Our parish is a family, and just as with our own families, it takes the support and encouragement of every member for the family to succeed.

Faith Formation

Living the Word

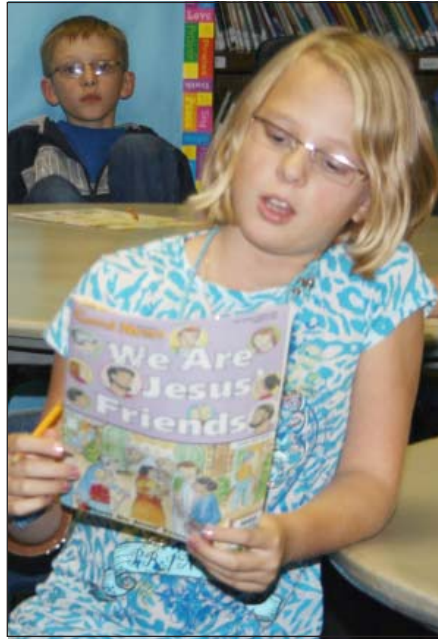

by Ann Hughes

PSR students read the Good News in their sessions each week, preparing for the coming Sunday's gospel. They are asked to live out God's Word of love in PSR activities and in their lives outside the classroom.

Students were asked to bring pennies to PSR sessions this month, with the hope that they would come from the children's pockets rather than the parents'. The donations are collected in large jars in the children's classrooms. The jars will be brought forth at the Gift-Giving Liturgy on December 1 to be given to Guadalupe Clinic, a charity sponsored by the Diocese of Wichita to provide health care for those who otherwise would not be able to afford it. Last year, PSR students generously donated $221.

During the parish food drive, PSR children brought non-perishable food items to class, and they may still do so on Nov. 17. Food donated during the drive will go to Catholic Charities, God's Food Pantry at Holy Savior, Guadalupe Clinic and Derby Food Pantry.

On December 1, students are asked to bring Christmas presents suitable for children to our annual Gift-Giving Liturgy. These gifts will be given to Catholic Charities for their Christmas Sharing program. They will be given to needy children from babies to age 17 (gifts for older children are in particular need).

Lauren Snavley and other students in Norm and Shelly McGeeney's PSR class discuss ways to be better disciples.

Elyssa Waple and Mckenzi Lynn Tanner participate in a kindergarten PSR session.

Service, faith and fun for teens

by Davi Stuhlsatz

Service to others is receiving a heavy emphasis in Life Teen and Confirmation this year.

Students have already participated in a variety of service projects directed at children and the elderly, including a Halloween Carnival and cleanup projects, and more are to come.

"I felt like I could fly after the kids worked in my yard, it just took such a huge weight off my shoulders and relieved so much stress," said Dee Burnett, 78.

While teens have been busy doing tasks for those who cannot do chores themselves due to health or age, they have still had time for fun.

LifeTeen has faith formation sessions for three Sundays a month, and one Sunday a month is a social planned by the teens. In October, the teens had a fun and crazy dance-off patterned after the popular dance show, So You Think You Can Dance.

At right, Andrew Walsten, Christian Williams, Matt Chapman, Josh Smith, Ali Coufal, Austin Williams and Melynda Bussman were in the So You Think You Can Dance competition.

Parish Life

What is a Meet & Greet?

by Sandy Rau

Meet and Greet – what is that? I am sure you have heard Father announce it or seen in the bulletin that Pastoral Council members would be in the gathering space after Mass for Meet & Greet. Or you may have noticed someone wearing a small gold Pastoral Council member badge as you entered or left the church.

One question that comes to mind might be who are they? The Pastoral Council is made up of active members of the parish entrusted to ensure that our parish is about the work of God. They represent the many voices of St Mary Parish. Your council members advise and collaborate with the Pastor in carrying out the Parish Pastoral Plan and setting parish policy.

Maybe you are wondering what this is all about. Meet and Greet is a means of making the Council accessible to all parishioners for their ideas. Several council members are in the gathering space before and after Mass the weekend prior to our monthly meeting, in order to hear any concerns, questions or kudos. They will take your questions and name and get the answer back to you if the question can't be answered on the spot.

You ask when and where does this take place. So watch for your Council member in the gathering space before and after Mass on the weekend prior to the third Tuesday of each month. They welcome your input, or even your greeting and conversation.

No Room at the Inn has nativities from whimsical to works of art.

There's room for you here

by Barbara Pinaire

The sixth annual No Room At The Inn nativity display hosted by St. Bernadette Guild to benefit St. Anthony Family Shelter will be Dec. 11 and 12

The event is modeled after a nativity display started in California over 15 years ago by two ladies with large collections of nativities. Last year we had over 350 nativities and nativity items. The mood is serene and beautiful and a great way to get into the true spirit of Christmas.

Anyone interested is able to display nativities – one or many. There is no cost to display; we only ask that you put up and take down your own display.

There is no admission charge; visitors are only asked for a free-will donation. There is also a raffle during the event.

This year the Anthony Family Shelter Advisory Board is hosting an additional event: The Stable Experience, a private viewing from 6 to 8 p.m. with a $25 ticket per person as admission.

The Stable Experience is a wine and cheese affair with quiet music and a small silent auction of nativity items. Admission to The Stable Experience is by advance ticket sales only. No tickets will be sold at the door. It is the hope of the guild and advisory board that we can raise over $5,000 for the shelter. If you are interested in displaying your nativity(ies) or wish to purchase tickets for The Stable Experience, call Barb Pinaire, guild chairman, at 253-4943.

Family matters

Generous hearts and the pretty purple box

Parishioners often ask Father Wayne and Sister Marie, especially during the holidays, how they can help parish families or individuals who might be struggling to make ends meet.

When Father and Sister are asked, they may not know of anyone in particular right then, but then someone might ask them for assistance on the weekend or just before Christmas, when help isn't readily available. The people who ask for help are often embarrassed to ask and don't want anyone else to know.

We generally keep some non-perishables on hand to help parishioners in need, but we'd like to try something new this year, to help the folks who may be having a rough patch maintain their dignity and to make it easy on Father and Sister to help them.

We'll have a purple gift box on the Scrip table, and if you'd like to buy a gift card (such as Wal-Mart or Dillon's) to put in the box, the cards will be passed along to Father and Sister to provide a little help to parishioners who ask for assistance.
