

GENRE CHALLENGE

STUDENT NAME: _____ GRADE: _____

BOOK TITLE: _____ AUTHOR: _____

GENRE: _____ DATE: _____

PARENT SIGNATURE: _____

ACCELERATED READER TEST TAKEN: Yes No

GENRES:

REALISTIC FICTION – books that tell made-up stories, but everything in them could actually happen in real-life

SCIENCE FICTION – stories often include futuristic technology; a blend of scientific fact and fiction

FANTASY – books that have unbelievable or impossible situations, such as magic or talking animals

ADVENTURE – characters in these stories are consistently placed in exciting, often hazardous situations

MYSTERY – has an event, which is not explained, or a crime that is not solved until the end of the story

POETRY – verse written to create a response of thought and feeling from the reader

BIOGRAPHY/AUTOBIOGRAPHY – true stories about real people (Autobiographies are the stories of the authors' lives.)

HISTORICAL FICTION – have made-up characters and situations, but they take place in a real time or setting from the past.

HOW-TO – non-fiction books that explain how to complete a particular task (They can be books about drawing, sports, cooking, origami, etc.)

NON-FICTION – true information (history, science, sports, religion, etc.)

GENRE CHALLENGE

STUDENT NAME: _____ GRADE: _____

BOOK TITLE: _____ AUTHOR: _____

GENRE: _____ DATE: _____

PARENT SIGNATURE: _____

ACCELERATED READER TEST TAKEN: Yes No

GENRES:

REALISTIC FICTION – books that tell made-up stories, but everything in them could actually happen in real-life

SCIENCE FICTION – stories often include futuristic technology; a blend of scientific fact and fiction

FANTASY – books that have unbelievable or impossible situations, such as magic or talking animals

ADVENTURE – characters in these stories are consistently placed in exciting, often hazardous situations

MYSTERY – has an event, which is not explained, or a crime that is not solved until the end of the story

POETRY – verse written to create a response of thought and feeling from the reader

BIOGRAPHY/AUTOBIOGRAPHY – true stories about real people (Autobiographies are the stories of the authors' lives.)

HISTORICAL FICTION – have made-up characters and situations, but they take place in a real time or setting from the past.

HOW-TO – non-fiction books that explain how to complete a particular task (They can be books about drawing, sports, cooking, origami, etc.)

NON-FICTION – true information (history, science, sports, religion, etc.)